Cable Management Tray, Under-desk black

This under-counter cable management tray offers plenty of storage space for cables, socket strips and more. Made from powder-coated steel, it is robust and durable. The open design makes it easy to route and store cables/socket strips. The channel can be attached to a sit-stand desk as well as a conventional desk. Sufficient space is created for power cables, network and computer cables. The cable management allows the sit-stand desk to be moved while preventing damage to the cabling. The simple appearance fits perfectly with a clear, open design of your workplace.
